As part of the Goizueta Business School application, you signed a provision entitled Statement of Ethics and Integrity. That Statement provided, in pertinent part that "[d]uring such time as I may be enrolled as a student, I will abide by the Goizueta Business School Honor Code and Code of Conduct and all relevant rules, regulations, practices, and policies of Emory University as they may be at the time of admission or as they may be changed during my continuance as a student."

Although you already have agreed in writing to abide by the terms and conditions of the Goizueta Business School Honor Code, we require an additional acknowledgment of your commitment to, and understanding of, our Honor Code upon your acceptance and before you may enroll for classes. This additional Agreement is intended to underscore the importance of our Honor Code, and the importance we place on academic integrity in our community.

A copy of the Goizueta Business School Honor Code is provided with this Agreement for your thorough review. By signing this Agreement, you acknowledge that you have thoroughly read and reviewed the entire Honor Code, and that you understand not only its terms and conditions, but also its intent and spirit. The Goizueta Business School Honor Code is intended to establish a level playing field where no one student can take unfair advantage over other students and it is essential that each Goizueta student understand his or her role in the honor system. Along with the rights and benefits provided by the Honor Code, each student also has certain duties and responsibilities under the Honor Code. If you have any questions or concerns about our Honor Code, or its force and effect during your tenure as a student, please communicate those questions or concerns to any Goizueta faculty or staff member, who will put you in contact with a member of the Honor Council.

By signing this Agreement, I acknowledge that I have read in its entirety and understand the Goizueta Business School Honor Code and agree to abide fully with its terms and conditions during my enrollment as a student. Further, I agree that ignorance of the terms and conditions of the Goizueta Business School Honor Code will not be considered a defense in any proceeding held pursuant to the Honor Code.

__________________________________________  ______________________________________
Signature of Admitted Student                  Printed Name of Admitted Student

__________________________________________  ____________________________
Date                                           Date