A technology website has been created to guide accepted students to receiving and learning about their Goizueta Business School accounts and their Emory and Opus accounts. These accounts must be created so that you may receive vital information regarding financial aid information and decisions, insurance information, general campus announcements, and other types of correspondence.

Please refer to the following website for complete instructions and technology contact information: www.bus.emory.edu/accepted